Amen.*

WEEKLY NOTICES 10th February 2019

A WARM WELCOME to Alan Buckley Lay Missional Leader from All Saints who is our visiting preacher this morning.

EVENING SERVICE - tonight at 6.30p.m. in the Lady Chapel.

CHORAL EVENSONG For many of us, Choral Evensong is always special, but this week, Wednesday, 13th February at 7.15pm, it will be more special than usual. Our choir will be joined by guest soloist Olivia Hunt. Olivia has made a number of recordings with our Acting Director of Music, John Hosking, and her sharing in our worship is eagerly awaited. The canticles, in which she will sing solo soprano, are by Stanford set in the key of G - John says they are his favourite - they certainly have a seriously complex organ part. The last time the choir sang the Stanford in G was back in 2005 in no less a venue than St George's Chapel, Windsor. In addition, the anthem is 'Teach me O Lord' by the great English Tudor composer William Byrd; a little gem. AND you can join us in singing Herbert Howells' hymn tribute to his son, Michael, 'All my hope on God is founded'. The service will close with John's rendition of Edward Elgar's 'Imperial March'. Glorious music.

Please come and join us and share in the beauty and solemnity of this service. We hope that the service will give you an opportunity to reflect, to pray, and to enter into a great tradition of worship; for some of us, it is a spiritual oasis in a busy week.

TRINITY FELLOWSHIP – We hope you'll be able to come to our meeting this coming Wednesday at 8pm in the Parish Centre when we're very pleased to welcome David Souheard who's going to tell us about Bee-keeping! You'll also be able to collect the programme for this coming year as well as the typed annual report and accounts for 2018. We hope you'll find this year's programme varied, interesting and entertaining and that you'll bring friends and family along too! May I remind you that if you didn't pay your annual subs (£15) in January, Liz will be more than happy to collect it from you on Wednesday!
Betty.

INTERREGNUM UPDATE - I am pleased to report that, with regard to our vacancy, the interview panel has short-listed a number of candidates and they are being invited for interview. Please hold the panel and the candidates in your prayers as they move to the next stage of the discernment process. Unfortunately, we are unable to answer any of the many questions you will undoubtedly have - your continued patience is appreciated. Anne

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE Elizabeth Anne Cochrane (10th) Brian Barker (12th) Joyce Barclay Kempton (12th) Marjorie Heald (13th) John Noel Kempton (13th) Ted Blagbrough (14th) Georgina Saunders (15th) Harold Morgan (15th)

FISH & CHIP QUIZ NIGHT. NEXT Saturday, 16th February at 7:30pm in the Parish Centre, Trinity Arts are holding a quiz night with fish and chip supper. The master of ceremonies will be our very own Bill Bennion. A similar event last year was very popular and proved to be an awful lot of fun. For catering purposes, we need to know in advance how many people will be attending (and also because we expect high demand) you are advised to purchase a ticket; these are on sale this morning in the parish centre after the service priced £10.

FOR YOUR PRAYERS: Elsa Dowling, Cyril Brown, Kath Pickup, Deborah Butler, John Munro, Fay Redhead, Doreen Blagbrough, Brian Castree, Bill Stead, Evelyn Shacklady, June Howarth, Mary Rimmer, and the children: Jessica May Ruston, Noah Cunningham.

BIRTHDAYS - If you are not already in our Birthday Book and would like to receive a card on your special day just let me have a note of your name and birthday. Simple as that! No need to reveal your date of birth but it is a help when a milestone birthday is on the horizon. Let's add a few more names to our book. Liz Jones

THANK YOU - Val Billington wishes to thank everyone for their good wishes, cards and prayers after her short unexpected stay in hospital she is home and almost fully recovered now!

10th February 2019 - 4th Sunday before Lent

1 Corinthians 15. 1 - 11

I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you – unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to someone untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace towards me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them - though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

Luke 5. 1 - 11

While Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake, the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon. And asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, 'Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.' Simon answered, 'Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.' When he had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signalled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, 'Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!' For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.' When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed Jesus.

WILL YOU COME AND FOLLOW ME

Will you come and follow me, if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown, will you let my love be known,
will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer in you and you in me?

Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean, and do such as this unseen, and admit to what I mean in you and you in me?

Will you love the 'you' you hide if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around through my sight and touch and sound in you and you in me?

Lord, your summons echoes true when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you, and never be the same.
In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.
